Opportunities to Enhance Your Holy Week Experience

We are incorporating a new way to participate in our celebrations of the Triduum this year. We want to tell you about these now, so that if you wish to participate, you may come to church prepared.

Good Friday, Stations of the Cross at Noon —

At the Stations of the Cross that are held outdoors, we invite you to walk with your own cross. You may bring a crucifix from home that is special to you, or construct a simple one to use for the stations. It can be any size — small, or even as tall as a person.

Easter Vigil Mass, the Service of Light —
Bring your own candle.

At the Easter Vigil Mass, you may bring a special candle from home to use in place of the ones that we pass out. In addition, we will have some large ones that we can sell you for $5.00, that you can use at the Mass and then take home with you for use in your special devotions. We will be selling these candles at the Parish Office during the week and in front of the church right before Mass at the Easter Vigil.

Easter Sunday —
The blessing of water.

On Easter Sunday you may bring water from home in a container, so that it can be blessed at Mass. This way you will have a supply of Holy Water to bring home with you. If you wish to do this, keep the container of water with you in your pew, and it will be blessed when Fr. Jesús walks through the nave of the Church to bless the people with Holy Water.

SPONSORSHIPS FOR THE WEEK

HOSTS: Sponsored by Francisco and Yolanda Garcia, in loving memory of Jesus and Carmen Mendez, Jose and Rosa Garcia, Chema and Olivia Sevilla and Richard Martinez

This Week
We “Wood” Be Needing Your Donations of a Particular Item

As was the case last year, we are going to have our large “new fire” in the field at the start of the celebration of the Easter Vigil next Saturday. In order to do this, we are asking for donations of firewood to build the fire. So, during the course of this week, if donating wood strikes a “cord” with you, simply deliver it to the field and place it in the area next to the cargo containers.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Do Not Bring Electronics With You on Friday

We will have our Passion Mime on Good Friday at the 7:00 p.m. service. Due to the solemn and powerful presentation that will be made, we are asking for you to do us a favor and not compromise the worship service. Please do not bring any type of camera or video equipment with you, as photography will not be allowed. In addition, keep all cellular phones and other electronic devices turned completely off or at home. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

Penance Guidelines for Good Friday

This Friday, Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence. Fasting means that anyone 14 years old (starting the day after one’s 14th birthday) up to 59 years of age (the obligation ceases at Midnight between the 59th birthday and the next day) should eat only one larger meal or two smaller meals, with no eating between meals. Pregnant women and people who are sick are not obliged to fast. Abstinence means that all those 14 years of age and older are to refrain from eating meat or meat products that day (no meat or chicken – fish is OK).

An Important Announcement For Those Who Volunteered For Holy Thursday’s Washing of the Feet

If you have volunteered to take part in the washing of the feet that takes place on Holy Thursday, we originally asked you to attend the practice for Holy Thursday Mass. This is no longer the case — you need not attend the practice. We do ask, however, that you attend Mass early on Holy Thursday. Show up around 6:30 p.m. and no later than 6:45, so that you can get your instructions. Thank you.

Help Enhance Our Worship Experience

16 Candidates to Receive Sacraments
At the Easter Vigil Mass Next Saturday

We would like to congratulate and welcome all those who will receive sacraments at our Easter Vigil Mass which will be held this coming Saturday, March 26, at 7:00 p.m.

Once again, congratulations to all of these people. Keep them in your prayers that their knowledge and faith in God will continue to grow and flourish.
LENTEN REFLECTION

"Jesus didn’t suffer so we wouldn’t have to. He suffered to show us how to.”
-Rev. J. Patrick Foley, at a Lenten Mission held at Our Lady of the Rosary in 2014

The Passion of Our Lord calls to mind our own suffering. In our community suffering abounds. Lives have been cut short for too many young men. Many of our fellow parishioners have become ill or have lost family members without warning. Skyrocketing rental properties have forced families into the streets. There are those who suffer the agony of a failed relationship, others who live in complete loneliness, and still others who wander—spiritually lost—in a desert of neglect.

And yet through it all, we are called during this time of year to repentance and transformation, and the first thing that comes to mind is “How?”

What a wonderful thing it would be if God magically removed all suffering. Just wiped it off the face of the earth. I think sometimes the danger for people of faith is to believe that God should, so they rebel when he doesn’t, lamenting with a loud voice, “My God, why have you forsaken me?” (Matthew 27:46)

The comfort comes in knowing that whatever we are going through, Jesus has been there first. The cross we are required to bear is light compared to the one Jesus carried up that hill.

As for the transformation part, ours was never meant to be the radical conversion that Paul experienced on the road to Damascus. We aren’t going to wake up and start “loving our enemies” (Matthew 5:44), not while we still struggle to love our own family!

Transformation takes place incrementally. It is a shedding of our old self in small—and sometimes painful—steps. It is saying “no” to the things that separate us from God and “yes” to the things that lead us into his loving arms.

As we do this, we suddenly see things through new lenses. We experience a change of heart, a heart that desires only to please him—and others.

God says, “Give me mercy, not sacrifice!” (Hosea 6:6) The challenge is to be merciful when we are crying out for mercy ourselves, to comfort others when we are in desperate need of comfort.

The call to genuine Christian living was never intended to make us busier. It was meant for us to embrace the love story of the Gospels, then go out and preach them in the way we conduct ourselves.

There is no greater testimony to our faith than how we live. If we live as Jesus invites us to, we will surely gain the Devil’s attention and he will try every trick in the book to sway us. To which Jesus says, “Been there done that.” (Luke 4:1)

And that takes us back to Rev. Foley’s statement. We are not alone in this. Jesus has shown us the Way.

—Donald Marquez

9-day NOVENA & CHAPLET of DIVINE MERCY (March 25 to April 2, 2016) - BILINGUAL

FEAST of MERCY SUNDAY (April 3, 2016) - Universal Church Feast instituted by Pope Saint John Paul II

The Novena

Jesus asked that Divine Mercy Sunday be preceded by a Novena to the Divine Mercy, which would begin on Good Friday. He gave Sister Faustina an intention to pray for on each day of the Novena, saving for the last day the most difficult intention of all, the lukewarm and indifferent of whom He said: "These souls cause Me more suffering than any others; it was from such souls that My soul felt the most revulsion in the Garden of Olives. It was on their account that I said 'My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass Me by.' The last hope of salvation for them is to flee to MY MERCY."

An Opportunity to Host
Our Lady of Guadalupe
In Your Home

The Guadalupe Society has a ministry where an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe will visit parishioner’s homes for a week. We are reaching out to our parish families with this ministry in order to offer them an opportunity to pray the Rosary at home and better know Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Each week at the 9:45 a.m. Mass, the family that had the Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in their home will return it, and, at the end of the Mass, a special blessing is given. Another parish family then takes possession of the image for the coming week. The family will have Our Lady at home from Sunday through Saturday. The family can invite friends, family and neighbors to visit their home and pray the Rosary with them. A guide for praying the Rosary is provided, which includes a narrative of each apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The following Sunday the family will return the image when they attend the 9:45 Mass, and the “cycle is repeated.”

Even though this devotion is starting at the 9:45 a.m. Mass, our intention is not to limit it to the parishioners who attend this Mass — this is only a starting point. People who speak both English and Spanish can take part, as the guide is bilingual. People who normally attend other Masses can participate — initially by attending the 9:45 a.m. Mass to take possession of Our Lady after the blessing, and later at other Masses as the ministry grows. Depending on what the future holds, other similar ministries could develop at OLR.

If you would like to schedule a week for the image to reside in your home, please contact Berta Ramirez at 510.441.7786 or Margarita Tijero at 510.460.2924.
