Her Words Might Describe Parish Life, But Words Can’t Describe Her Dedication

Martha Estrella

You have met the people who have folded and assembled the Bulletin every week for countless years. Two weeks ago we introduced you to Santos and Santa Alvarez, who have translated the Bulletin’s articles every other month for the past ten years. This week we put Martha Estrella in the spotlight. She translates the Bulletin as well, alternating months with Santos and Santa. She is on duty in translating the Bulletin this month.

Martha started translating the Bulletin in 1992, which means that as of this year she has been translating the Bulletin for 23 years. Originally she was the only translator, but we recruited her some help to give her every other month off as this work can be a grueling task.

Her job was the hardest in the very beginning when we started putting Deacon Dick Folger’s Gospel Stories on the front cover. In those early days Deacon Dick just started writing the stories, and would provide them to us on a week-by-week basis as he finished writing each one. When he would send us the material, Martha would come to the office every week to translate his story and the remainder of the Bulletin. She would begin working around 7:00 p.m., and it was not uncommon for her to leave the office at 1:00 in the morning — or later. Deacon Dick’s articles were a challenge and a learning experience to translate, as they were colorful stories full of similes, detailed descriptions and words that were difficult to translate from English to Spanish. One notable story included a boat, where Peter sat on the “stern thwart.” Translating that one phrase, including thinking and research time, took almost an hour. Three years later, once all three cycles of the lectionary had passed, translating was a bit easier, as Dick used the same stories over again, and Martha only had to translate the updates and refinements that he made to the stories.

Martha has lived in Union City all her life, and attended local schools, including James Logan High. She attended college at San Jose State, and received her Master’s degree in Public Health. Throughout her career she has been employed at Tiburcio Vasquez Health Center. She is well-suited for the translation job, having taken courses in Translation while at San Jose State.

Besides translating, Martha is also a Lector at Spanish Masses, the Head Lector, a member of the Liturgy Committee, the Chairperson of the Finance Committee, a member of the Festival Committee, and helps the OLR Ballet Folklórico in their events.

Martha is very involved in this parish, as she follows the command and example of her parents, Salomon and Esperanza. Her parents taught her that it is her responsibility to give back to her church for all that God has given us. This is something she saw her parents do.

So remember that even though it might take you less than an hour to read the Bulletin, it takes a number of people hours and hours each week to make it possible. Be grateful for their work and their generous sharing of time and talent. And if you see Martha this week, be sure to give her your thanks.

Knights of Columbus to Have A Casino Bus Trip

The Knights of Columbus will be having a trip to Red Hawk Casino as a fundraiser on Saturday, May 30, 2015. The bus will leave the church parking lot at 7:15 a.m. sharp. The bus should be back at the church around 6:30 p.m. The cost of tickets is $35.00 per person. Each person will receive either $20.00 in table play money or $15.00 for slot play. Each person will also receive a $5.00 meal credit. For more information call Solomon at 510.507.1911. He will also be selling tickets in front of the church.

We Will Start Collecting Rice Bowls Next Weekend

If you took a Rice Bowl home at the start of Lent, please bring it back to church next weekend. You can deposit it in one of the baskets located at the entrances to the church. Thank you for helping those in need in developing countries throughout the World by participating in this program.

Fridays During Lent Are Days of Abstinence

This means that all those 14 years of age and older are to refrain from eating meat or meat products that day (no meat or chicken — fish is OK).

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday

Next Sunday is Passion Sunday (Palm Sunday). The Mass schedule will be the usual weekend Mass schedule.

As there will be many people at Mass next weekend, our Knights of Columbus will serve as parking lot monitors to maintain the proper flow of traffic in the parking lot and to assist people in finding parking spaces. Please be alert and follow their guidance.

Stewardship Corner

A couple of months ago through Deacon Folger, I came in contact with a deacon from another parish who invited me on an immersion (missionary) trip to Jamaica, that was to take place at the end of April. I explained to this deacon that I was in between jobs. He asked me to sign up anyway and if I was unable to find work in time to pay for the trip that I could back out.

About three weeks ago, I interviewed for a job. I explained to the person interviewing me that I had signed up for a trip at the end of April. He told me they would work around it. He also said that he wanted to fill the position as quickly as possible, but that he needed to post the position to his internal staff first. Lastly, he told me that I was his first choice.

At that moment, I felt God’s overwhelming generosity at work.

But as the weeks went by, I heard very little from the person who interviewed me. When he finally reached out to me, he explained that there were other candidates. He told me that I was his first choice but he sounded much less convincing than our first meeting. He called me last Wednesday with an update, and that I would hear from him again on Thursday or Friday.

He did not call me. I began to worry. I began to doubt.

This past Monday I attended a Lenten Mission that the deacon who I met months ago was giving; the same deacon who had invited me on the mission trip. Afterwards we greeted each other, and he said to me in an excited voice “Are you ready for the trip?” I told him about my job situation, and that I could not make travel arrangements without having steady work.

The deacon said to me, “You know how when we want it to rain, we wash our cars?” He continued. “Go home and make those travel arrangements. You’ll hear something.”

So I did. And sure enough, I received a call about the job. They were going to send me an offer.

I emailed the deacon with the subject line, “God is Good.”

God IS good. God will never be outdone in generosity. NEVER. God always provides. ALWAYS.

DIOCESAN-WIDE CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Come to Soup Night This Wednesday And Meet Our Bishop

Bishop Barber is visiting as many parishes as he can in order to share his vision of the Church and the Diocese with the faithful, and how the Diocesan-Wide Capital Campaign will help the Church of Oakland and our parish meet its goals and challenges, and grow in the future. It happened that the Bishop had a free evening in his busy calendar to visit a parish, and we were eager for him to visit us. Fortunately, the night he was available just happened to coincide with this Wednesday’s Soup Night — it will provide a great forum where we can meet and listen to him speak.

Remember to come to the Soup Night this Wednesday, March 25, at 7:00 p.m. (one hour later than usual). Bishop Barber is enthusiastic about the Church and his vision and it shows in his presentation — don’t miss it.

In this edition of the Bulletin you will find a flyer that has the Campaign Prayer. We ask that you pray for the success of the campaign to help ensure a brighter future for our diocese and the many people that it serves.

A Word of "Thanks" to Our Volunteer Church Cleaners

This week we would like to acknowledge cleaning Team #4, which will be cleaning our Church this Tuesday and Friday at 3:30 p.m. The members of this team are Ida Cabrera, Adrian Martinez, Jasmine Martinez, Pat Martinez and Norma Stabile. Thank you for your hard work and dedication.

If anyone else would like to join them to help, please meet them at the Church at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday or Friday.

LENTEEN MEDITATIONS

Jesus reminds us in today’s Gospel that “whoever loses his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life.”

This can be a difficult task, even among the most faithful of Christ’s followers. Why? Well, the world has so many tangible ways of pulling us in and tempting us to “love our lives” versus loving God. The world offers a variety of pleasures and distractions in the form of material objects, foods, entertainment, and social media.

And then there are the inner behaviors that we cherish. In his remarkable book, “Rediscover Catholicism”, Matthew Kelly says, “We love some of our sins. We love some of our self-destructive behavior, especially the habitual ones.”

It is in our sinful behavior and habits that the world embraces and targets, but that Jesus says leads to a “lost life.”

In the parable of the Prodigal Son, we read how the younger son squanders his share of his father’s estate on things of the world. Eventually, he came to “hate his life in this world” and returned to his father. In coming to his senses, the son “preserved his life.” Upon seeing him, the father proclaims, “My son was dead, but is alive again. He was lost, and has been found.”

It is through “hating our lives in the world” that leads to rebirth in Christ, and ultimately “produces fruit.”

Your Invitation is Coming Soon!
We are Looking Forward to Your RSVP!

The Catholic Diocese of Oakland Community

Today, there are over 400,000 Catholics, 83 parishes and 1 mission, 108 active diocesan priests; 112 deacons, 29 seminarians, 175 religious priests, 96 religious brothers, 337 religious sisters, and 55 Catholic high schools, elementary schools and colleges under the pastoral care of Most Reverend Michael Barber. Our diocese includes rural, urban and suburban communities, and our population is perhaps the most economically and ethnically diverse in the nation. Masses are celebrated regularly in seventeen different languages, which is indicative of the rich cultural diversity of the East Bay and the local Church.

Together, we celebrate Mass and share in our call to discipleship. We proudly embrace and live our diocesan mission “to know Christ better and make Him better known.”

We Need Your Prayers...
Our faith teaches us the importance of prayer. Your daily prayers for the success of our important project are invaluable. Thank you for your faithfulness.

All registered parishioners of Our Lady of the Rosary will receive an invitation to attend a campaign reception.

These receptions are social and informative events that will allow Father Jesus Nieto-Ruiz, members of the Campaign Committee and a diocesan representative to present to you our plan of action for our Reclaiming Christ's Mission Together Campaign.

Receptions will take place on:
- Wednesday, March 25 at 7:00 p.m. (Bishop Barber will assist, bilingual)
- Tuesday, April 14 at Noon & 7:00 p.m. (English)
- Tuesday, April 21 at 7:00 p.m. (Spanish)
- Wednesday, April 22 at 7:00 p.m. (English)

These receptions are a unique opportunity to learn firsthand about this historic campaign. By attending a reception, you will be presented with information about new Diocesan projects as well as what we plan to do in order to address our own needs here at Our Lady of the Rosary. We will have a personalized packet of information prepared for you when you arrive.

This is also a chance to take some time out of your busy schedule to meet and communicate with each other. Please remember, you will not be asked to turn in a pledge at these receptions. Leave your wallets at home, but bring your questions!

This campaign is absolutely vital for the life and growth of our Diocese. One of the most important things you can do during this campaign is to join us at a reception. When you receive your invitation, be sure to RSVP as soon as possible!

Two Soup and Bread Suppers Remain — This Week is a Little Different Than Usual

As Lent comes to a close, that means that there are only two more Wednesday night Soup and Bread Suppers. They will be sponsored by the following groups:

- April 1 The Chinese Community

The suppers are held in the Parish Hall and usually start at 6:00 p.m. This Wednesday, however, supper will be held an hour later, at 7:00 p.m. That is because Bishop Barber will be joining us and giving a special presentation afterwards. The following Wednesday, April 1, the usual schedule will be followed, where supper is served at 6:00 p.m. followed by a prayer service in the Church from 7:00 to 7:30 p.m.

Remember:

This Wednesday the Soup and Bread Supper will be at 7:00 p.m. — one hour later.

Stations of the Cross Held Every Friday

Stations of the Cross take place in the Church every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. They are being sponsored by the Spanish Youth Group, but the Stations are bi-lingual.

FESCO is Exploring a Strategic Alliance with Abode Services

Recently FESCO lost its ongoing grant of over $160,000 annually for its homeless shelter operation in Hayward. Currently homeless shelters are considered as a less effective and an expensive way to handle homelessness. More emphasis is being placed on rapid re-housing plans to help homeless people.

FESCO can’t continue its present operation without this grant and must find ways to cut costs and still help the homeless including families as well as individuals. As a result, FESCO has been meeting with ABODE Services in Fremont to work out a plan, called a “Strategic Alliance,” which will join their services so they can consolidate the operations of both organizations with complementary missions. After months of exploration and discussion, the Boards of FESCO and Abode Services propose forming an alliance between their agencies to accomplish this joint effort. By joining forces, both organizations gain in at least three ways:

1. There will be an improvement in management efficiency by enhancing the ability to achieve economies of scale, reduce overhead costs, maintain a reserve, and manage risk.
2. As a regional organization, there will be a gain in visibility and credibility in doing fundraising, applying for grants, making developmental applications, and speaking out on preventing the causes of homelessness.
3. It will be easier to pull together the skills necessary to implement a new model for ending homelessness and for providing affordable, well-managed housing combined with supportive services.

The heart of the matter is to provide a stronger, more effective way for people at risk to get a new start and resolve their housing problems.

If you have any questions or want more information about this matter please contact your OLR FESCO Parish Representative, Ron Wenzler 510.400.9045.

Regardless of any changes that may happen with this Strategic Alliance, FESCO will still be serving the homeless and it will still have its 16th Annual Shuffle Walkathon on the morning of May 2, 2015 at the San Leandro Marina. Mark your calendars now — and more details will be in future bulletins.
