You Are Welcome to Attend
Confirmation Mass
Celebrated by Bishop Barber
Today at 4:00 p.m.

The Most Reverend Michael C. Barber, SJ, Bishop of Oakland, will be here today (Sunday) to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to 10 OLR youth and youth from other neighboring parishes at a Mass being celebrated at 4:00 p.m.

The participants in the Our Lady of the Rosary Confirmation Program who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation are Carlos Enrique Perez Gonzalez, Lillia Guerrero, Rosamaria Ibarra, Virginia Ibarra, Elizabeth Kwong, Nicholas Kwong, Stephanie Moreno, Sean Anthony Nhern, David Ramirez and Ricardo Reynoso.

Others joining us at OLR to receive the sacrament are Natali Delgadillo (St. Clement), Carina Gonzalez (St. Clement), Isabella Espinosa Hernandez (St. Anthony), Rogelio Mercado (SPRED) and Britney Vazquez (St. Anthony).

Congratulations to all of these young people for having worked hard to prepare to receive this sacrament. Keep them in your prayers that they may continue to grow in their love and understanding of God, and that they might be inspired and given the strength to take on a deeper role in our Church and more fully live out the challenging life of a Christian.

Students in Grades K-7:
Come Join Us for OLR Summer School

OLR Summer School is open to all current students of both Our Lady of the Rosary School and the parish CCD program. It will take place from June 20 to July 22, 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 each day. The program has an Olympic theme, is based on STEEM and STEM, and will have classes in English, Math, Art and Crafts, Science and Engineering, VEX Robotics as well as a variety of other activities.

The cost of the program is $50.00, but the inability to pay should not deter anyone from attending. There will also be extended care from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. for an additional fee.

Call the school office at 510.471.3765 for more information.

Second Collection Next Weekend

The second collection next weekend will be for the annual Catholic Charities appeal.

This collection was originally scheduled for May, but since there would have been another second collection the week before, we decided to postpone this collection to the month of June, which has no other second collection scheduled.

If you have a set of offertory envelopes but do not have an envelope for this collection, you may use one of the extra red second collection envelopes in the back of your set and write “Catholic Charities” on it.

Thank you very much for your support of all of the valuable work that Catholic Charities of the East Bay does to support those in our diocese who are facing difficult times, getting on their feet, immigrating to our country, or are victims of human trafficking.

One Minute Meditations

St. Josemaría Escriva

St. Josemaría Escriva was born in Barbastre, Spain in 1902. Despite hardships that included the deaths of his three younger sisters, his faith remained strong. As a teen, he felt called to the priesthood and was ordained in 1925. Religious persecution during the Spanish Civil War forced Fr. Escriva to practice his ministry secretly. In 1928, he founded Opus Dei based on the idea that people could become holy by performing their everyday tasks with a Christian spirit.

Humility

The virtue of humility is the ability to know who we are in relation to God. A humble person recognizes his or her blessings as gifts from God to be shared with others. Think of your talents as God’s gifts, and use them to “make something beautiful for God” today.

“You are not humble when you humble yourself, but when you are humbled by others and you bear it for Christ.”

St. Josemaría Escriva

Whose temple is it anyway?

“Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God? You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.” (1 Corinthians 6:19). We learn about God from his creation. A vibrant sunset or majestic mountain tells of the creativity and power of their creator. Do you reflect well on your creator?

How godly is your temple?

To communicate, we can use our language, voice, and manner to convey our Christ-like love or contradict it. A godly temple of the Holy Spirit communicates using affirming language and peaceful mannerisms.

Are you delighted by your temple?

Our entire being was carefully crafted, yet we want to be thinner, smarter or more attractive. Imagine finding fault with God’s best creation. Instead look for ways to celebrate your temple and use what was given to best advantage.

Rule your own temple. “... for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live” (Romans 8:13). Certain spiritual practices, such as fasting, are designed to give us control over our physical desires. When ruled by the needs of our bodies, we neglect our souls. Bodies will die. Souls live forever.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do we call priests “father”?

By calling priests “Father,” we recognize that we are a parish family under the care of a spiritual father. In fact, leaders in the early Church were called “Father.” St. Paul said, “Even if you should have countless guides to Christ, yet you do not have many fathers, for I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel” (1 Corinthians 4:15). As a father instructs, forgives, and listens to his children, so a priest must do for his parish.

Are you waiting to hear from God?

St. Francis was knocked off his horse and St. Paul was struck down while traveling to Damascus, but God doesn’t always make his message that obvious. Try these ideas for discerning how God wants to work with you:

Give him control. “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths” (Proverbs 3:5-6). Give your concern to God, then let it go. Try not to get too attached to an outcome, but trust God to do what’s best for you. Redirect your thoughts if you start getting anxious.

Ask, ask, and ask again. The best sources of guidance are prayer and Scripture. While you wait for an answer, though, seek guidance from someone who shares your faith, such as your favorite priest or religious. Spend extra time in church, looking for inspiration. “Where there is no guidance, a people falls; but in an abundance of counselors there is safety” (Proverbs 11:14).

from Scripture

Luke 9:51-62, What does it take to be a disciple?

Jesus’ listeners often got swept up by his charismatic manner and would blurt out their intention to follow him. That didn’t necessarily mean they were ready to be true disciples of Jesus, just that they were willing. In this Gospel story, an eager man wished to follow him but was deflated when Jesus pointed out the difficulties with discipleship. Following him wouldn’t always be comfortable. Many were turned off by that.

For the second man in the story, the timing wasn’t right. He wanted to fulfill his duty to his father before setting out with Jesus, but learned that Jesus sets the agenda. Our duty is to obey. The third man wanted to say farewell to his family before leaving but discipleship takes focus. Jesus knew that looking back while plowing can ruin the job. He used that example to help the man understand that we need to have a singleness of purpose to be his disciple. Anyone who follows Jesus will make sacrifices, but he promises us that the rewards will be worth much more than anything we leave behind.

Feasts & Celebrations

June 3 - Sacred Heart of Jesus. At the end of the seventeenth century, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque began receiving visions of Jesus, who urged her to spread public devotion to the Sacred Heart. The image of Jesus with his heart exposed in unquenchable flame is a reminder of his intense and eternal love for us.

June 28 – St. Irenaeus (202). As bishop of Lyons, Irenaeus investigated and disproved assertions of the Gnostics, who claimed to have secret knowledge imparted by Jesus to a few disciples. In great service to the Church, Irenaeus clarified Church teaching and gradually ended the influence of the Gnostics.

June 29 – Saints Peter and Paul (1st century). St. Peter was chosen by Jesus to lead the Church. The Gospels include some unflattering details about Peter, showing that he was ordinary, made extraordinary by God’s grace. An early persecutor of the Church, Paul became the Great Apostle, also transformed by grace. St. Paul preached the Gospel throughout the known world.

Q What’s wrong with taking God’s name in vain?

Misusing God’s name doesn’t make him less wonderful, awesome, or powerful, but it can diminish him in others’ view. Instead, Jesus tells us to say, “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name” (Matthew 6:9). We show respect for God by respecting his name.

God gave us his name so we could approach him. “The gift of a name belongs to the order of trust and intimacy...For this reason man must not abuse it” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, # 2143). Today, there is hardly a movie or television show that doesn’t use his name as a swear word. Yet for the ancient Jews, God’s name was considered so holy it was unspoken. Instead they addressed him as Adonai, which means “LORD.”

How we use God’s name tells others what we believe about him. Do we think he can’t hear when we misuse it? Is he angry when people cut in line? If we believe God is a loving Father who responds when we call him, we will use his name differently.

SVDP's “Wish List”
For June
Help our Food Pantry
Feed the Hungry

One of the corporal works of mercy is to feed the hungry and you can do this act of mercy by providing food for the SVDP Pantry!

This month we are requesting 2 items:
• Ravioli (canned)
• Crackers

Please put the food in the wooden boxes at the exits of the church. You can leave them in bags because we can also use paper grocery bags.

If you have any questions please, call Lorrie Wenzler at 510.400.9045.
Thank You for helping to refill our shelves.

Fathers Day
Remembrance Envelopes
Now Available

Fathers Day remembrance envelopes are now available. They are on top of the donation boxes at the doors of the church.

You can write the name of your father, living or deceased, on one of these envelopes. The envelope will be placed in a box on the altar, so your father will be remembered in prayer in a special way during the Masses in the month of June.

You may turn your completed envelope in at the Parish Office, in the collection, or by placing it in one of the donation boxes at the doors to the church.

If you are the President or Chairperson of one of the above ministries or organizations, please make sure that your organization is represented at these meetings. Thank you.

It’s Time to Make Your Submissions
To Our Fathers Day
Digital Photo Gallery

Last year on Fathers Day we projected a “Digital Photo Gallery” on the screen in front of the Church as we recognized our fathers towards the end of Mass. We did the same for our mothers last month. We will continue our new parish tradition this month as we project a photo gallery of our fathers on Fathers Day weekend, which will be in two weeks on June 18 and 19.

You may now submit a photo to us if you would like to include it in the gallery. In reviewing the success of the last two galleries we produced, the Liturgy Committee is setting forth two policies:

- All photos submitted last year will be included in this year’s gallery (no need to re-submit if you sent in a photo last year).
- We would like only one photo per family, please.

The photos we would like to display are those of members of our parishioners’ families with their fathers. The fathers can be either living or deceased.

If you want to submit a photo, here is what you need to know:
We would like digital photos or photos that have been scanned into a .jpg format. If you don’t have a scanner, you can take a photo of a printed photo with your smart phone and e-mail it to us — when doing this, if your phone gives you an option for file size, choose “large” or “actual size.”

Send your photo to bulletin@olrchurch.org by Tuesday, June 14. Be sure to send it to this e-mail rather than any other as your photo’s chance of getting “lost in the shuffle” will be minimized.

We hope that when you come to Mass on Fathers Day that the memories you share in photos will result in a rewarding experience.

An Opportunity to Host
Our Lady of Guadalupe
In Your Home

The Guadalupe Society has a ministry where an image of Our Lady of Guadalupe will visit parishioner's homes for a week. We are reaching out to our parish families with this ministry in order to offer them an opportunity to pray the Rosary at home and better know Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Each week at the 9:45 a.m. Mass, the family that has the Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe in their home will return it, and, at the end of the Mass, a special blessing is given. Another parish family then takes possession of the image for the coming week. The family will have Our Lady at home from Sunday through Saturday. The family can invite friends, family and neighbors to visit their home and pray the Rosary with them. A guide for praying the Rosary is provided, which includes a narrative of each apparition of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The following Sunday the family will return the image when they attend the 9:45 Mass, and the “cycle is repeated.”

Even though this devotion is starting at the 9:45 a.m. Mass, our intention is not to limit it to the parishioners who attend this Mass — this is only a starting point. People who speak both English and Spanish can take part, as the guide is bilingual. People who normally attend other Masses can participate — initially by attending the 9:45 a.m. Mass to take possession of Our Lady after the blessing, and later at other Masses as the ministry grows. Depending on what the future holds, other similar ministries could develop at OLR.

If you would like to schedule a week for the image to reside in your home, please contact Berta Ramirez at 510.441.7786 or Margarita Tijero at 510.460.2924.
